

Dear Valued Customer / Partner / Designer

We are writing to remind you of the importance of protecting the confidentiality of our product catalogue data. As you are aware, our catalogue contains sensitive and proprietary information that is intended solely for your use in evaluating our products and making informed purchasing decisions.

However, we have recently become aware that some of our customers have been sharing our catalogue data with unauthorized parties, including competitors and other suppliers. This is a serious breach of our trust and can have significant negative impacts on our business and our ability to compete in the marketplace.

We want to be clear that such actions are not only unethical, but also illegal and can result in serious legal consequences for those involved. We take the protection of our intellectual property rights very seriously, and we will not hesitate to take appropriate legal action against any customers who violate our policies in this regard.

Therefore, we strongly advise you to keep our catalogue data confidential and to only share it with those within your organization who have a legitimate need for the information. We trust that you will respect our intellectual property rights and help us maintain the integrity and competitiveness of our business.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and we appreciate your continued support of our company.

Sincerely,
